

LA MÉMOIRE
EN ACTES 2

A black and white photograph of two people, Christine Salem and Danyel Waro, positioned behind a large, stylized graphic. Christine Salem, on the left, is a Black woman with a large afro, smiling and clapping her hands. Danyel Waro, on the right, is a white man with long, curly hair and glasses, also smiling. The graphic they are behind is a large, stylized letter 'A' composed of a blue circle and a yellow triangle. The text 'ça mon PAYS' is written in yellow over this graphic.
